Dynamic Frames

This thin profile frame opens from the front to make it easy to change, display, and store your pictures. You don't even have to take the photo off the wall to change out your child's photos each year! Keeps a bunch of photos inside, so it's a great storage solution too. Frames start at $22.95 at dynamicframes.com.

Stay With Me Socks

Everyone knows how hard it is to keep socks on a baby - how do those things manage to wiggle off! Adjustable velcro straps keeps socks snug on baby's feet while also serving to keep socks together in the wash. Find them at Target or online at staywithmesocks.com for $5.95.

SmartZip Sleeper by Hello

World It's dark and baby is sleeping - how do you pull off baby's clothes, change the diaper then refasten it in the dark and without causing a fuss? The SmartZip zips from the bottom and top! There is even a cover on the bottom zipper so baby can't access it. $28 at helloworldclothing.com.

Baby Orajel® SmartDose™ Teething Gel

Who really knows how much teething gel is too much? Now you have this - teething gel packaged in a pump-action tube that dispenses the correct amount of gel with each pump Brilliant! Find it all over The Woodlands area in most Walgreens, Targets, and Kroger stores for around $5.99.

RockBoom Speaker iPod Case by RockBuds

You're jogging to your own tune while baby sits in the stroller. Not anymore! This all in one personal speaker and carrying case allows baby to enjoy the music too. It keeps mp3 players safe and can even be given to little ones in the stroller while you jog to keep them busy. Sells for $24.99 at select Office-Max stores and chicbuds.com.

My Child ID

Safety is a priority these days, but so is showing off your little one! My Child ID stores and encrypts photos and vital child identification data to help in missing person cases and medical emergencies. It's a portable photo album, but with a very important purpose. Vital info is secured with SHA-1 encryption, and it's available at amberalert.com or buymychildid.com for $39.95.

Spa Baby Eco

This is the first baby bath made of 100% recycled plastic, and it's designed to offer baby a soothing womblike bath time experience. And it's actually much easier to give that slippery little guy a bath in this tub. Recommended age is newborn to 10 months of age, and it's available for around $46.95 at spababytubs.com.
